The partners met for the first time in Ibi, Spain and this gave them the opportunity to introduce themselves, and discuss all aspects of the project.

The meeting was a good opportunity to set the framework for cooperation between the project partners.

The partners discussed the project plan in detail, divided responsibilities and settled management issues.

Kick off meeting

📍 Ibi, Spain

The partners created a questionnaire to explore the needs and skills that refugees, migrants, immigrants and disadvantaged woman need to gain employment within the countries where they reside.

The questionnaire was created in English and translated into Portuguese, Greek, Spanish and Ukrainian.

82 replies to the questionnaire were collected and translated into English.

The findings of the questionnaire are expected to be announced shortly.
